ROAD TO THE REFORMATION

The most enduring symbol of the Lutheran Reformation is the seal that Luther himself designed to represent his theology. By the early 1520s, this seal begins to appear on the title page of Luther's works.

Here is how Luther himself explained its meaning:

First, there is a black cross in a heart that remains its natural color. This is to remind me that it is faith in the Crucified One that saves us. Anyone who believes from the heart will be justified (Romans 10:10). It is a black cross, which mortifies and causes pain, but it leaves the heart its natural color. It doesn't destroy nature, that is to say, it does not kill us but keeps us alive, for the just shall live by faith in the Crucified One (Romans 1:17). The heart should stand in the middle of a white rose. This is to show that faith gives joy, comfort, and peace—it puts the believer into a white, joyous rose. Faith does not give peace and joy like the world gives (John 14:27). This is why the rose must be white, not red. White is the color of the spirits and angels (cf. Matthew 28:3; John 20:12). This rose should stand in a sky-blue field, symbolizing that a joyful spirit and faith is a beginning of heavenly, future joy, which begins now, but is grasped in hope, not yet fully revealed. Around the field of blue is a golden ring to symbolize that blessedness in heaven lasts forever and has no end. Heavenly blessedness is exquisite, beyond all joy and better than any possessions, just as gold is the most valuable and precious metal.

The first version was used in Luther's writings in the 1520s for the first time, and was in black and white, with Luther's initials.

A colorized rendition of the seal began appearing as printers began to include color images in Luther's works. Each one was laboriously painted by hand.

"I have held many things in my hands, and I have lost them all; but whatever I have placed in God's hands, that I still possess." Martin Luther

To Advent Members,

Many thanks for all the beautiful cards given to me on my 90th birthday. The reception given to me by my children was perfect. I was speechless, nervous and excited but loved every minute of the party.

Thank you dear friends—Aileen Long

Eternal Father, you have placed us in a world of space and time, and through the events of our lives you bless us with your love. Grant that in this New Year we may know your presence, see your love at work, and live in the light of the event which gives us joy forever- the coming of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

LIFE CHANGES

*Our Christian Sympathy is extended to family and friends of...
Betty S. McConnell, 90, (Beth Meyer's Aunt) who passed to the Church Triumphant on December 18th, 2016.*

John 3:16 "For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son,
So that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life"
*Almighty God, source of all mercy and giver of comfort: Deal graciously; we pray, with those who mourn, that, casting all their sorrow on you, they may know the consolation of your love;
through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.*

Prayer from the Lutheran Book of Worship

Thank you to Jade and Stephen for getting our tree in place this year, and to all who participated in decorating our church. It truly is beautiful!
