THE REFORMATION

Here I Stand

Luther's Protestant views were condemned as heretical by Pope Leo X in the bull Exsurge Domine in 1520. Consequently Luther was summoned to either renounce or reaffirm them at the Diet of Worms on 17 April 1521. When he appeared before the assembly, Johann von Eck, by then assistant to the Archbishop of Trier, acted as spokesman for Emperor Charles the Fifth. He presented Luther with a table filled with copies of his writings. Eck asked Luther if he still believed what these works taught. He requested time to think about his answer. Granted an extension, Luther prayed, consulted with friends and mediators and presented himself before the Diet the next day. When the counselor put the same question to Luther the next day, the reformer apologized for the harsh tone of many of his writings, but said that he could not reject the majority of them or the teachings in them. Luther respectfully but boldly stated, "Unless I am convinced by proofs from Scriptures or by plain and clear reasons and arguments, I can and will not retract, for it is neither safe nor wise to do anything against conscience. Here I stand. I can do no other. God help me. Amen."

On May 25, the Emperor issued his Edict of Worms, declaring Martin Luther an outlaw.

The centerpiece of the Holy Families initiative is the website- www.holyfamilytime.com-featuring a host of resources to aid in promoting discipleship in the home. The Holy Family Time devotional was written with these key emphases in mind: Solid Bible Content, Child and Family friendly reading, Lutheran Theological Perspective, Questions asked by children, Employing Luthers three ófold approach to Scripture: Prayer, Study and Struggle. õIn the Luther Householdö, is a printed Bible study based on NALC's biblical, confessional, traditional understanding of marriage and family.

Pastor Jones has this study and is willing to have a class in a home or at Advent. If anyone is interested in opening their home for this please let the office know.

On May 18th, Prime of Life went to Paula Deen's Restaurant in Savannah, Ga. for lunch. We all anticipated a wonderful day and was not disappointed as the 14 of us worked our way into the van with Pastor at the helm. Fun, laughter and fellowship stayed with us for the day.

On another note, in case any of you wonder why Pastor always wears her collar, let me share this with you.

First of all it is to be identified as a safe person of God that you may encounter and be reassured of a faithful ear and message. That being said, as so often happens with Pastor whether she is having coffee, walking outside or any other activity in or out of the church building, she was approached by our waitress at Paula Deen's. Pastor was asked if she may speak to her about a few things that she had encountered recently. "Of course", was the answer. So after the lengthy conversation, Pastor had comforted our server and perhaps helped her on her own journey of personal growth with the Lord.

I have witnessed this interaction with Pastor and "her collar" many times while working at Advent throughout the week. Thank You Pastor Jones for always having time for your Advent family as well as all those who seek you out for any number of reasons, looking for reassurance. Anyone that thinks a Pastor only works on Sunday should follow Pastor Jones around for a week!!! It can be an amazing, exhausting journey!

*Almighty God, source of all mercy and giver of comfort: Deal graciously: we pray, with those who mourn, that, casting all their sorrow on you, they may know the consolation of your love: through your Son,
Jesus Christ our Lord.
